CLERK OF THE COURT
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
URBANA DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

WESLEY D. JOHNSON,

Defendant.

Rule 20
21-cr-73 (NEB)

Case No. 19-20029

Title 18, United States Code,
Sections 2, 844(i), and 1951.

INDICTMENT

(Conspiracy to Interfere with Commerce by Threats and Violence)

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

1. From on or about September 29, 2017, and continuing through at least March 10, 2018, in Ford County, in the Central District of Illinois, and elsewhere,

WESLEY D. JOHNSON,

defendant herein, knowingly and intentionally conspired with others, both known and unknown to the grand jury, to unlawfully obstruct, delay, and affect, and attempt to obstruct, delay, and affect commerce, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 1951, by (a) robbery, that is the unlawful taking and obtaining personal property from the person and presence of another against his or her will, by means of actual and threatened force, violence, and fear of injury, immediate and future, to his person and property; and (b) extortion, that is attempting to obtain the property from another, with his consent, induced by the wrongful use of actual and threatened force, violence, and fear.

2. Objects of the Conspiracy

The objects of this criminal conspiracy included to obtain money and property by robbery and extortion and to do so without detection by law enforcement authorities.

3. Means and Methods of the Conspiracy

Among the means and methods by which the conspirators conducted and participated in the criminal conspiracy are the following:

a. Around August of 2017, the conspirators formed a militia group that eventually identified itself as the "White Rabbits." The militia group obtained materials used to make explosive, destructive, and incendiary devices, provided weapons and uniforms to members of the group, and assigned ranks to its members. These and other items belonging to the militia group were kept in a building located in Clarence, Ford County, in the Central District of Illinois.

b. On multiple occasions during the course of the conspiracy, the conspirators met in Clarence, Illinois, and agreed to perform "jobs" (i.e., criminal acts) to achieve the objects of the conspiracy and to fund the militia group. The conspirators then traveled together from Clarence, Illinois, to the location of their "jobs," sometimes using rented vehicles to avoid detection by law enforcement authorities.

4. Acts in Furtherance of the Conspiracy

In furtherance of the criminal conspiracy and to effect the object thereof, in the Central District of Illinois and elsewhere and on or about the dates set forth below, the defendant and others, both known and unknown to the grand jury, committed and caused to be committed acts in furtherance of the conspiracy, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. Robbing or attempting to rob WalMart stores engaged in interstate commerce, including but not limited to stores in Watseka, Illinois, on or about December 4, 2017, and Mt. Vernon, Illinois, on or about December 17, 2017;
- b. Robbing or attempting to rob individuals suspected of being involved in interstate commerce, namely, drug trafficking, including but not limited to, individuals in Ambia, Indiana, on or about December 16, 2017;
- c. Damaging or attempting to damage Canadian National Railway railroad tracks used in interstate commerce located near Effingham, Illinois, by an incendiary device on or about January 17, 2018, and then attempting to extort money from the railroad by threatening additional attempts to damage railroad tracks if the railroad did not pay a ransom; and
- d. Planting materials that could be used to make explosive, destructive, and incendiary devices on the property of J.O. in Clarence, Illinois, on or about February 18, 2018, in an attempt to deflect law enforcement suspicion from the conspirators to J.O.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1951 and 2.

COUNT 2
(Attempted Arson)

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

On or about November 7, 2017, in Champaign County, in the Central District of Illinois,

WESLEY D. JOHNSON,

defendant herein, maliciously attempted to damage by means of fire and an explosive a building, namely, the Women's Health Practice in Champaign, Illinois, used in interstate commerce and in an activity affecting interstate commerce.

In violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 844(i) and 2, and Pinkerton v. United States, 328 U.S. 640 (1946).

A TRUE BILL.
